FRAGILE

Lycée Français de San Francisco

Friday, January 25 @ 8pm.

Jean Louis Milesi has been very active since his arrival in the Bay Area 2 years ago.

We have been following him from conferences to screenings, from festivals (The Snows of Kilimanjaro - screenplay co-written by Jean Louis Milesi - was selected at the renowned SFIFF 2012 [1]) to parties, and we supported him when he presented his project Don't Give Up the Ghost on Kickstarter. Read our article. [2]

Don't give the Ghost is no longer a project. It is becoming real! Jean Louis Milesi is now in the editing phase. We can't wait to see the movie!

The Theatre of the Lycée Français of San Francisco will be presenting the movie Fragile by Jean Louis Miliès (writer and director) on Friday, January 25.

Martin Lamotte plays the part of the main character, a police guy in the South of France, facing a fragile tipping point in his personal and professional life: a crucial investigation for his career and his son who needs help after a suicide attempt.

Jean Louis Miliès will attend the screening and the Q&A that will follow.

Prepare your questions and book your Friday!
